prior request was granted. The Court may require any written motion for continuance or enlargement of time to be signed by the party requesting the continuance.

C. First Enlargement of Time

The first motion for enlargement of time to file a responsive pleading to a Complaint shall be granted summarily for up to forty-five (45) days. Any request for additional time beyond forty-five (45) days or a subsequent request for enlargement of time shall be at the discretion of the Court.

LR89-TR33-005 DISCOVERY: INTERROGATORIES, REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS, TIME TO SERVE

A. Preparation. Interrogatories shall be tailored specifically to the cause in which they are served and be numbered consecutively to facilitate response.

B. Number Limited. Interrogatories shall be limited to a total of twenty-five (25), including subparts. For good cause shown and upon leave of Court, only additional interrogatories may be propounded to the extent authorized by leave of Court.

C. Answers and Objections. Answers or objections to interrogatories under TR 31 or 33 shall set forth in full the interrogatories being answered or objected to immediately preceding the answer or objection.

D. Time to Serve. All written discovery, whether directed to a party or nonparty to an action, must be served at least thirty-three (33) days prior to the expiration of any discovery deadline which may be established by the Court, unless leave of Court directing otherwise is granted prior to the service of such discovery.

E. Limit on Requests for Admissions. Request for Admissions are limited to thirty (30) in number (not counting requests related to the authenticity of a document). Leave of Court may be granted allowing for the service of more than thirty (30) Request for Admissions provided the moving party fully complies with TR 26(F), and files a motion setting forth the proposed additional Requests and why they are necessary.

- F. Discovery Disputes. Strict compliance with rules 26 to 37 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure is required. The discovery process is intended to be largely self-actuating, with minimal Court supervision. Therefore, the Court will not rule on motions related to discovery disputes unless the moving party represents that after personal or telephonic conference in a good faith effort to resolve their discovery differences, the parties are simply unable to reach an agreement. If a party to the action (including “nonparties”) advises the Court, by way of motion or response that the opposing part has refused or delayed resolution of the discovery dispute, the Court may, after hearing, impose appropriate sanctions.
- G. Motion to Strike. A Motion to Strike specific interrogatories as excessive, oppressive or repetitive, may be filed after fully complying with TR 26(F). Such a motion shall not serve to extend the time for answering interrogatories which are not in dispute.

LR89-TR55-006 DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Upon the proper filing of a motion for default judgment pursuant to Trial Rule 55, the Court may enter default and may either: 1) enter default judgment in the amount requested if supported by proper accompanying pleadings (Affidavit of Indebtedness, etc.); or 2) set the matter for damages hearing. In the event the Court sets the matter for damages hearing, the moving party may file an Affidavit (of indebtedness or otherwise) in support of its claim for damages or judgment if said party has not already done so. In the event the Court set the matter for damages hearing, it is not necessary that the moving party or such party’s counsel attend the damages hearing. If the nonmoving party does not appear or appears and does not contest the damage or judgment amount requested, and the amount requested is supported by proper accompanying pleadings filed by the moving party, the Court may enter judgment in the amount requested. If the amount of damages or judgment is contested at the damages hearing, the Court will then set the matter for further hearing at a later date and further evidence may be presented.

LR89-TR56-007 MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

All Trial Rule 56 Motions for Summary Judgment shall be filed at least one hundred fifty (150) days prior to trial.

LR89-TR37-008 CONTEMPT

If a party who has been properly served fails to appear at a contempt hearing, the Court shall not proceed but shall, upon request by the moving party, cause to issue a Rule to Show Cause Order, ordering the nonmoving party into court to answer as to why he/she failed to appear and why he/she should not be held in contempt of court. If the nonmoving party again fails to appear in court as ordered after being properly served with the Rule to Show Cause Order, a Writ of Body Attachment may be issued for the nonmoving party.

LR89-TR73-009 ORAL ARGUMENT

The granting of a motion for oral argument, unless required by the Indiana Rules of Procedure, shall be discretionary with the Court.

12. LIST OF WITNESSES. Setting forth a numbered list of trial witnesses which shall include each witness's address. Expert witnesses shall be so designated.

D. Failure to File Pretrial Statement

In the event either party should fail to timely file a pretrial statement as required by this Rule, the Court shall have the right to cancel the pretrial conference and/or the trial or to enter appropriate sanctions against the party failing to file such pretrial statement.

E. Preliminary Pretrial Conference

The primary purposes of the preliminary pretrial conference are to determine whether or not the case is ready to proceed to trial by jury as scheduled, and to determine the procedure to prepare the case for trial. Once a case is determined at the preliminary pretrial conference to be ready to proceed to jury trial as scheduled, a continuance of such date will not be granted except for extraordinary circumstances which were not reasonably foreseeable at the preliminary pretrial conference. Such reasons shall not include the need to file further pleadings or motions, pursuing or completing further discovery, securing attendance of any witness or party, or any other reasonably foreseeable reason.

F. Final Pretrial Conference

The primary purpose of the final pretrial conference is to determine the procedure to prepare the case for trial and to discuss these matters set out in Rule 16 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

G. Attendance By Trial Counsel Required

The primary purpose of the final pretrial conference is to determine the procedure to prepare the case for trial and to discuss those matters set out in Rule 16 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure. Therefore, attorneys shall appear in person for such hearings, except by leave of Court under extreme circumstances. The lead attorney expected to try the case shall be personally present at the final pretrial conference.

H. Pretrial Order

Following the pretrial conference, a pretrial order shall be entered in compliance with Rule 16 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

I. More Than One Pretrial Conference

If necessary or advisable, the Court may adjourn the pretrial conference from time to time or may order additional pretrial conferences as it deems appropriate.

LR89-TR40-012 CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE & ORDER AND SETTING OF PRETRIAL AND TRIAL DATES.

A. Mandatory Case Management Conference

A case management conference shall be required in all cases where a jury trial is requested, and in all cases designated as CT or MI.

B. Discretionary Case Management Conference

A case management conference may be ordered in any other case upon the filing of a motion by any party or on the Court's own motion.

C. Conference Procedure

Within one hundred twenty (120) days of the filing of a Complaint in those cases where a case management conference is mandatory, or within thirty (30) days after otherwise being ordered to participate in a case management conference, Plaintiff shall arrange a meeting of all parties for the following purposes:

1. List of Witnesses. Exchange preliminary lists of witnesses known to have knowledge of the facts supporting the pleadings. The parties shall thereafter be under a continuing obligation to advise opposing parties of other witnesses as they become known. The parties shall establish a date by which any testifying expert witness must be disclosed.
2. Documents. Exchange all documents which are contemplated to be used in support of the pleadings. Documents later shown to have been reasonably available to a party and not exchanged may be subject to exclusion at the time of trial.
3. Other Evidence. Exchange any other evidence reasonably available to obviate the filing of unnecessary discovery motions.
4. Mediation and Settlement. Discuss the likelihood of settlement of the action and the date, if any, by which mediation shall occur.
5. Discovery Schedule. Agree upon a schedule for all discovery, including a date by which discovery shall be finalized and completed.
6. Complicated Case. Discuss whether the action is sufficiently complicated so that additional conferences may be required.
7. Additional Parties. Discuss the date by which any motion to join additional parties must be filed.
8. Pre-Trial Pretrial Motions. Discuss and agree upon the dates by which any motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment, and other motions shall be filed. It shall not be necessary to include the date for filing motions in limine as motions in limine are to be filed at least fifteen (15) days prior to trial pursuant to LR89-TR-006.

9. Anticipated Trial Readiness Date. Discuss the date by which the parties reasonably anticipate the case will be ready for trial.
10. Estimated Length of Trial. Discuss the length of time the parties reasonably anticipate the trial will take to complete.

Commentary

The Court views the obligation of reasonably advancing the cases on the Courts' dockets to be an obligation that is mutually shared among all parties and their counsel. However, when these Rules or an issued court order require or contemplate that the parties or their counsel shall meet and confer prior to a particular court proceeding (such as a case management conference), unless otherwise stated in any such order, the Court expects that the plaintiff or petitioner will take the lead in coordinating such meetings.

D. Case Management Plan

Within ten (10) days after meeting but, in any event, within one hundred eighty (180) days of filing the Complaint, the parties to the action shall file an Agreed Case Management Plan setting forth:

1. The likelihood of mediation and settlement;
2. A detailed schedule of discovery for each party, including an agreed upon date by which discovery shall be completed and finalized;
3. A limitation on the time to join additional parties and to amend the pleadings;
4. A limitation on the time to file all pretrial motions, excluding motions in limine;
5. A preliminary estimate of the time required for trial;
6. The date by which the parties reasonably anticipate the case will be ready for trial;
7. A date by which mediation shall be completed; and,
8. A date by which preliminary witness and exhibit lists shall be exchanged and filed, including the date by which expert and/or skilled witnesses shall be disclosed if different from the date by which other witnesses must be disclosed.

For the dates by which Motions for Summary Judgment, Motions in Limine, Objections to Motions in Limine, proposed Jury Instructions, and Objections to Proposed Jury Instructions, must be filed, please refer to these Local Rules of Civil Procedure.

E. Setting of Pretrial and Trial Dates in Cases Where Jury Requested

Upon the filing of an Agreed Case Management Order pursuant to this Rule, which is thereafter approved by the Court, preliminary pretrial, pretrial, and trial dates shall be set by the Court. The preliminary pretrial conference shall be set approximately six (6) months prior to the scheduled trial date with the final pretrial conference scheduled approximately thirty (30) to forty-five (45) days prior to the scheduled trial date. At the preliminary pretrial conference, all counsel shall be prepared to discuss whether the case remains ready to proceed to trial.

In the event that a Court requires an Agreed Case Management Order in a case to be tried to the Court, hearings will also typically be scheduled consistent with this Rule.

LR89-TR00-016 ATTORNEYS FEES IN CIVIL CASES

A. General Provisions

Rule 1.5 of the Rules of Professional Conduct adopted by the Supreme Court of Indiana shall govern the awarding of attorneys fees in civil actions. All fees charged by attorneys must be reasonable. Factors which the Wayne Circuit and Superior Courts will consider in determining attorney fee awards in civil cases include:

1. The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.
2. The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
3. The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal service;
4. The amount involved and the results obtained;
5. The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
6. The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
7. The experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services.

Attorneys fees are to be based upon those factors as set forth above and other relevant factors. At the appropriate time in the proceeding, attorneys shall submit a Verified Affidavit in support of the request for attorneys fees setting forth: facts in support of such request; a detailed list of the services and time expended on the matter to date; the amount of time expected to be expended in the future through to completion, including collection; the attorney's customary and usual hourly fee; and all other relevant facts in support of the request. All fees, if any, shall be awarded at the time of Judgment, and not at a future date unless authorized specifically by statute.

B. Mechanics Liens

In cases involving mechanics liens, the Court will find as reasonable attorney fees, unless there is evidence to the contrary, the following:

- Up to $1,500.00 for the first $10,000.00 of judgment (or any portion thereon);
- Up to 5% of the next $15,000.00;
- Up to 3% of the next $25,000.00;
- Up to 1-1/2% of the next $50,000.00;
- Up to 1% of the next $150,000.00;

Up to 1/2% of everything over $250,000.00.

The above fees shall include conferences with client, preparation of notices, complaint and summons, obtaining judgment, and reasonable collection efforts. In instances where additional fees are requested, the attorney shall file a Verified Petition/Affidavit which details the services and times expended thereon and including those matters referred to in Rule 1.5 of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

C. Other Written Instruments Including Leases, Notes and Contracts

In all cases where instruments provide for attorney fees, or such fees are provided for by statute, except real estate mortgage foreclosure and mechanics liens, the Court will find as reasonable attorneys fees, unless there is evidence to the contrary, the following:

Amount of Debt	% fee to be awarded
The First $3,000.00	Up to 33-1/3%
The next $10,000.00	Up to 17%
The next $12,000.00	Up to 8%
Excess of $25,000.00	Up to 3%

The above fees shall include conferences with client, preparation of notices, complaint and summons, obtaining judgment, and reasonable collection efforts. In instances where additional fees are requested, the attorney shall file a Verified Petition/Affidavit which details the services and times expended thereon, and includes those matters referred to in Rule 1.5 of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

B. A person arrested and incarcerated shall be permitted to post bail consistent with the Court's bail schedule unless otherwise ordered or communicated to the Sheriff by a judge.

C. Prior to release of a person pursuant to the forty-eight (48) hour rule or upon posting bail, the person must complete a verified promise to appear, on a form approved by the Courts, indicating his or her full name, date of birth, address, place of employment, home and work telephone numbers, Social Security number, email address and promise to appear in the Court and at the time designated by the Sheriff. A copy of the Promise to Appear shall be provided to the arrested person and to the Court upon designation. The Promise to Appear is Form 1 in the Appendix.

D. Failure to appear as promised upon release from custody is cause for issuance of an arrest warrant.

E. All persons arrested and incarcerated shall be brought before the Court in which charges are filed within a reasonable period of time.

LR89-CR00-003 APPOINTED COUNSEL

A. A defendant who is financially unable to obtain counsel is entitled to appointed counsel in accordance with this rule, except in misdemeanor cases where the prosecution is not seeking a sentence of incarceration. If the Court appoints counsel, the defendant will be notified of the name, address and telephone number of appointed counsel.

B. If a defendant states that he or she is financially unable to obtain counsel, the Court will examine the defendant as to financial circumstances and may require financial statements and/or investigation of the defendant's financial circumstances. If the investigation reveals that the defendant is financially unable to obtain counsel, the Court will appoint counsel.

C. At the time of the initial hearing, a defendant, for whom counsel is not appointed or for whom counsel has not entered an appearance, will be scheduled for a hearing regarding counsel and will be ordered to appear for said hearing. The defendant shall be instructed to contact attorney(s) in order to determine the costs of privately-retained counsel and to report back to the court at the time of the hearing regarding his or her efforts and progress in retaining private counsel.

D. If the Court finds that the defendant is able to pay part of the cost of representation by appointed counsel, the Court may order the defendant to pay an appropriate sum to the Clerk of the Courts to be deposited into the county's supplemental public defender services fund.

E. The Court may order a person for whom a public defender has been appointed to perform community service during pretrial release to compensate the county for the value of public defender services.

The letter of withdrawal shall explain to the client that failure to secure new counsel may have a material adverse effect on the client's constitutional rights and upcoming deadlines, and other pertinent information such as a pending trial date or any other hearing date. Such letter of withdrawal shall be sent to the client's last known address via both certified mail-return receipt requested and First Class Mail, postage prepaid. The Certificate of Service attached to the required motion for leave to withdraw must indicate compliance with both forms of mail to the client and to all counsel, or the request shall be denied. The Court shall have discretion to grant a motion to withdraw if the Court finds that the client was properly notified, although by means that are not in strict compliance with this rule.

B. If the motion to withdraw is granted, the Court will determine whether the then existing financial circumstances of the defendant necessitate the appointment of counsel. If so, counsel shall be appointed forthwith so as to obviate delay in the proceedings. If the defendant is not qualified for appointed counsel, the defendant shall be ordered to pursue the retention of alternate counsel and to report back to the Court within not less than fourteen (14) days the results of all efforts made to retain another attorney.

- G. Indiana Rule of Criminal Procedure 26: Under the authority of the Circuit and Superior Courts of Wayne County, the Wayne County Probation Department shall conduct a risk assessment of each individual booked into the Wayne County Jail on a criminal charge, unless otherwise ordered or exempted by the Court. The risk assessment will report to the Court the defendant's risk for failure to appear, including but not limited to, any additional pending criminal charges the defendant faces and previous failures to appear in court, as well as if the individual is recommended for supervised pretrial release.
- H. Conditions of Release: All releases on bond or on personal recognizance are subject to the following basic conditions: (a) defendant shall appear in court at all times required by the Court; (b) defendant shall not leave the State of Indiana without prior written consent of the Court; (c) defendant shall not commit nor be arrested for another criminal offense; (d) defendant shall keep his or her attorney and the Court advised in writing of any change of address within 74 hours of such change; (e) the defendant shall not possess a firearm during the pendency of the criminal case, and (f) any other condition the Court deems appropriate. Pursuant to Indiana Code 35-33-8-3.2(a)(4), a defendant's release may be conditioned upon refraining from any direct or indirect contact with the alleged victim of an offense or other individual as ordered by the Court. Cases for Search Warrants shall be assigned randomly among the Wayne Circuit, Superior No. 1, Superior No. 2, and Superior No. 3 Courts in the same manner as set forth in LR89-CR00-013.

In the event there is a pending action involving the same criminal defendant for whom or against whom a Search Warrant is now requested that is related to such pending proceeding, a Notice of Filing of Request for Search Warrant shall be filed in the underlying pending action within twenty-four (24) hours after execution of the Search Warrant. Such Notice shall advise the court, counsel, and defendant that a request for a Search Warrant has been filed in a miscellaneous criminal case setting forth the caption of the case and the case number. Failure to file such a Notice is grounds for appropriate sanctions. Requests for Search Warrants are ex parte proceedings.

The Clerk of the Wayne Circuit and Superior Courts shall assign a successor judge from the remaining Wayne County judges by random selection until no Wayne County Circuit or Superior Court judge remains. If no Wayne County Circuit or Superior Court judge qualifies as special judge, the Clerk shall assign a special judge, in sequence, from the following list of judges, all of whom are within the administrative district within which Wayne County is a part, as set forth in Administrative Rule 3(A), or are from a contiguous county and have agreed to serve as special judge in the courts of Wayne County where the case is pending:

C. Submitting Proposed Decree and Agreement. When submitting a proposed final Dissolution of Marriage Decree and Property Settlement and/or agreement Pertaining to Children, the Agreement submitted shall also be submitted as an attachment to the proposed Decree.

LR89-FL00-3 SPECIFIC DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Prior to any provisional hearing or within thirty days after service of any petition seeking relief in any family law matter, whichever shall first occur, each party shall provide the Court and the opposing party with written notice of any other pending legal proceeding in which such person is a party wherein the other pending legal proceeding involves an issue or allegation of domestic violence, spousal abuse, child abuse, protective order, restraining order, Child(ren) in Need of Services, Termination of Parent-Child Relationship, Juvenile Delinquency, or any criminal charges. The written notice should include the cause number of the legal proceeding, identification and location of the Court, names of the parties involved, and a brief summary of the nature of the legal proceeding.

LR89-FL00-4 COOPERATION IN FAMILY CASES

A. Liberal Construction and Application.

1. The Courts of Wayne County are committed to a cooperative model for the handling of family cases by parents, attorneys, and judges. This Rule will be liberally construed and applied to serve the healthy and child-sensitive functioning of families.
2. “Family Cases” are defined as all marital dissolution or separation cases, paternity and other JP cases, contested adoption cases, and guardianship cases, including post-dissolution, post-paternity and post-JP cases, and the like, to include modification and contempt cases or rule to show cause cases.
3. The adoption of this Rule is not intended to affect lawyers’ duty to act with reasonable diligence and promptness in representing a client. See Indiana Rule of Professional Conduct 1.3 and its commentary.

B. Case Captioning and Usage of Terms

1. Family cases shall be captioned as “Petitioner and Mother,” “Petitioner and Father,” “Respondent and Mother,” “Respondent and Father,” “Original Petitioner and Mother,” “Original Petitioner and Father,” “Original Respondent and Mother,” “Original Respondent and Father,” and the like, and shall not be designated as “Petitioner” or “Respondent” only, except as otherwise provided hereinbelow. Parties shall be designated according to their family role; e.g., Mother, Father, Husband, Wife, Maternal Grandmother, Paternal Grandfather, Former Husband, Former Wife, Putative Father, and the like. The party filing the initial petition at the very commencement of the initial case shall be named first throughout all filings.
2. In Family Cases involving same sex partners, the parties may choose to use the terms “petitioner” and/or “respondent” only.
3. Use of the term “Petitioner” and “Respondent” shall not be used in the body of a pleading in a Family Case nor in any court hearing. Only terms identifying the parties’ family roles, as designated in the case caption, shall be used in the body of a pleading or in any court hearing in a Family Case, except in a Family Case where the parties are same sex partners and choose to use the terms “Petitioner” and “Respondent” only.

C. Duties of Attorneys and Parties in Family Cases.

1. Attorneys and parties in family cases shall be responsible to act with the Courts as co-problem solvers, not mere problem reporters.
2. The Courts expect all parties and attorneys to consistently observe:
 - a. personal responsibility by acting on one’s own opportunities to solve problems and improve circumstances rather than merely reporting on the alleged fault in others,
 - b. cooperation by sensibly defining and pursuing the best interests of all family members,
 - c. courtesy by constant observance of respectful language and behavior, and
 - d. focused attention on children’s needs including an awareness that parent conflict is gravely dangerous to children. As a result, attorneys shall not meet with and/or interview any child or children who are the subject of a Family Case.
3. Attorneys appearing in family cases shall (a) furnish their family clients with a copy of this Rule or obtain a written certification signed under oath by the family law client that the attorney has reviewed and thoroughly discussed the Wayne County Rules of Family Law with him/her and that the client understands the requirements of cooperation as a part of these Rules; and, (b) assist them in fully understanding and observing its provisions.

D. Website Work.

1. In marital dissolution and separation cases, involving one or more children under the age of nineteen (19) years on the date of their initial petition; in actions where the IV- D Prosecutor’s Office brings an original action to establish paternity or for child support and/or medical support; and in other juvenile paternity original actions involving child support, child custody, or medical, parents shall complete the website work on www.UpToParents.org, and shall take their completed work to the parenting class required under LR89-FL00-8, any and all case-related appointment, court hearing, mediation, or the like. The Judge, in his or her complete discretion, may waive completion of such website work or the class referred to at LR89-FL00-8. Parents open to the possibility of reconciliation may substitute the work from www.WhileWeHeal.org.
2. Parents shall merge their chosen Commitments from their website work into a set of Agreed Commitments, review those Agreed Commitments, and take copies of them to any hearing or other case-related appointment.
3. The website work and class shall be completed promptly but within forty-five days of the filing of the Petition, unless leave of court is granted.

4. The Agreed Commitments and other result generated as a result of the website work shall be inadmissible and unenforceable in the event litigation is required. The purpose of the website work is to generate a culture of co-parenting for the long-term benefit of families.
5. The Court for good cause shown may order a waiver of completion of the website work and class.

E. Protocols for Motions and Hearings In Family Cases

1. In Family Cases, parties and counsel shall make every reasonable effort to resolve problems by reaching agreements that serve the best interests of all family members and should appear in court on contested matters only in rare circumstances after every reasonable effort to resolve problems has been made.
2. In Family Cases, except in instances where it would be dangerous or otherwise unreasonable to do so, counsel and parties without counsel shall use good-faith personal, ~~or~~ telephonic, and/or electronic consultation to resolve any issue before seeking relief from a court. In that mandatory consultation, counsel, and/or parties without counsel, shall:
 - a. attempt to resolve the matter at issue;
 - b. discuss, and make a list of, the resources they believe the parents could use to resolve current and future issues and to build cooperation (separate lists shall be made if a joint list is not agreed on);
 - c. if previously ordered by the Court, confirm that the parents (i) have completed the website work referred to in paragraph D, (ii) have merged their chosen Commitments into a set of Agreed Commitments, and (iii) will review and bring their Agreed Commitments and any other website work to any upcoming case related appointment;
 - d. confirm that each parent has completed the assigned parenting class; and
 - e. discuss what the Court can do to assist the parents in reaching further agreements.
3. All petitions and motions, except initial filings, filed by counsel and parties without counsel, including motions of any type or character for contempt or rule to show cause, shall include a Certificate of Cooperation in the form prescribed by Appendix C of these Rules and shall, at a minimum, confirm compliance with each of the requirements in paragraph E(2) in addition to those matters set forth in Appendix C. The Certificate of Cooperation may also include additional matters that a party or counsel believes would be helpful to the Court in acting as a problem solver and generating a culture of co-parenting for the long-term benefit of families.

A Certificate of Cooperation is required in all cases designated as DN (domestic relations, no children), DC (domestic relations with children), JP (juvenile paternity), or RS (reciprocal support) involving child custody, child support, parenting time, insurance and/or health benefits for a child, tax dependency claims, and mental health and/or counseling for a child, including any request for a modification of such provisions or a finding of contempt with respect to such provisions.

4. To the extent that the filing date of a particular petition or motion triggers certain rights and obligations, strict compliance with subsection E(2) may be excepted so long as the moving party indicates that a Certificate of Cooperation is not included in said petition or motion due to the importance of the filing date and can demonstrate to the court's satisfaction that such importance overrides the requirement of filing a Certificate of Cooperation. It will be the exception and not the rule that such temporary exemption is permitted. In such cases, the moving party shall be required to comply with subsection E(2) and file a Cooperation Update within seven days of the date of filing.

5. Failure to comply with this section may result in the denial of relief or hearing until compliance is ensured.

F. Status Conferences.

1. A status conference may be requested at any time. The moving party shall provide with his/her initial pleading a proposed Order for Status Conference, leaving the date and time blank.

2. Any request for a status conference shall comply with subsections E(2) and E(3) above. Said request shall further indicate the moving party's proposed agenda for such status conference.

3. The chief purposes of status conferences will be (a) for attorneys (and parties without attorneys) to report on progress in reducing conflict, building cooperation, preserving family relationships, and responding to the needs of the children, (b) for families, where required, to be referred for any necessary help, and (c) for attorneys (and parties without attorneys) to report on discovery issues.

4. Parties or their attorneys shall consult in advance of the status conference and present suggestions for the future course of the case that would serve the best interests of all family members.

5. Additional status conferences may be requested whenever parties or counsel believe they would be helpful in reducing conflict, building cooperation, preserving relationships, or protecting children.

G. Additional Assistance to Families.

1. At any time parties need resources to reduce conflict, build cooperation, preserve family relationships, or respond to the needs of their children, they and their attorneys, if any, should make arrangements to find the resources that could help them.
2. If parents nevertheless continue to have conflict and appear in court without an agreement about the resources they will use, the Court may select the resources the parents will be ordered to use.

H. Requests for Trial Settings.

1. Requests for trial settings or hearings that are reasonably anticipated to take at least thirty (30) minutes or more of court time shall be requested in writing and shall: (1) provide that no continuance will be requested for discovery or other purpose reasonably anticipated at this time; (2) the amount of time being requested; and, (3) the unresolved issues to be heard by the court. A Certificate of Cooperation shall be completed and filed with all requests for trial settings or hearings that are reasonably anticipated to take at least thirty (30) minutes or more of court time.

I. Enforcement.

1. Courts may use, at their discretion, the variety of enforcement mechanisms available, including but not limited to the award of attorney's fees and sanctions, available to them in the traditional system.

J. Effective Date.

1. This Rule shall apply to all filings, in both new and pending cases, as of the effective date of the entirety of these Rules.

Commentary

Family cases of all sorts (see LR89-FL00-4(A)(2) above) must be handled in ways that reduce conflict, build cooperation between parents, and protect children. The Courts of Wayne County will expect parties and attorneys to give consistent attention to those ends and will liberally construe and apply this Rule to serve those ends.

This Rule provides nine measures to promote the cooperation necessary to serve the best interests of all family members involved in family cases.

Cases will be captioned and parties will be designated in ways that better convey everyone's duty of cooperation. See paragraph B.

Attorneys and parties will be expected to consistently observe personal responsibility, cooperation, courtesy, and focused attention on children's needs. See paragraph C.

Parties shall be referred for website work. See paragraph D.

In matters involving minor children, before filing motions or pleadings, attorneys and unrepresented parties are required to have a personal consultation with the other attorney or unrepresented party to resolve the pending issues before filing motions or pleadings. Motions or Pleadings filed must include a Certificate of Cooperation to demonstrate that the required consultation has occurred. The Certificate of Cooperation is designed to be an effective tool for the Court to determine how well the parties are communicating and being effective parents. It is designed to assist the court in determining what resources can be used to get cooperation from the parties and what is needed to make them better communicators and effective parents or family members. It is not to be used to disparage the other party or to, in any way, act as a sword against the other party. An initial filing, be it a petition for dissolution of marriage, petition for modification or the like, need not include a Certificate of Cooperation. It is believed that the timing is such that a Certificate of Cooperation need not be filed at the outset of the matter, other than with a petition for contempt or rule to show cause. Parties shall bring their merged Worksheets to all case-related appointments See paragraph E.

The Courts may hold status conferences to hear counsel's suggestions for helping families cooperate and function better. Parties without attorneys may also request and/or participate in status conferences. See paragraph F.

Requests for trial settings must be in writing and include a statement that no continuance will be requested, the amount of time requested for the hearing or trial, and the unresolved issues to be heard by the court. A Certificate of Cooperation must also be included in the motion requesting the hearing or trial. See paragraph H.

This Rule and the enforcement thereof appear contradictory. However, the benefits of the overall concepts contained in this Rule, as well as the recognized and hoped long term advantages of implementing such a process, render its enforcement of vital importance, as families in conflict do not always fit well into the mold of the traditional adversary system. Nevertheless, it must be recognized that an attempt to reshape the model within which family law cases have traditionally occurred will require, on occasion, the use of those enforcement mechanisms which do not fall within a model of cooperation. See paragraph I.

- A. In Non-Dissolution of Marriage Cases. The Court shall have the discretion to hold provisional hearings in non-dissolution of marriage cases and may grant relief where appropriate.
- B. Child Support Worksheet. All Motions for Provisional Order seeking child support or a modification thereof shall be accompanied by a proposed Child Support Obligation Worksheet.
- C. Cooperation. In provisional motions which involve minor children accompanying an initiating pleading, strict compliance with LR89-FL00-4 is not required; however, the moving party, including such party's attorney, shall make reasonable efforts at resolving all provisional issues with the non-moving party, whether or not represented by Counsel, after service of said initiating pleading and prior to the scheduled hearing.
- D. Time Allotted and Nature of Proceedings. Provisional hearings shall be held in summary fashion and shall be scheduled in fifteen-minute increments, unless either party has indicated in his/her Motion for Provisional Hearing or Response thereto that additional time is required. Such indication that additional time is required further constitutes a waiver of the twenty-one (21) day scheduling requirement. In general, provisional hearings shall be held in court chambers off the record. Either party may request in his/her Motion for Provisional Order that the proceedings be held on the record, which further constitutes a waiver of the twenty-one (21) day scheduling requirement. The Court shall have the discretion to grant or deny in whole or in part a request for an on-the-record evidentiary hearing exceeding fifteen minutes in length.
- E. Attorney's Fees. Provisional attorney fees may be awarded at the Court's discretion in accordance with LR89-FL00-18.
- F. Preliminary Appraisal, Evaluator, and Accountant Fees. Appraisal, evaluator, or accounting fees may be allocated based on the following factors:
1. Itemized list of property to be appraised or valued (e.g., Defined benefit pension, business interests, business real estate, furnishings, vehicles, etc.).
 2. An estimate of the cost of the appraisals and the basis therefore.
 3. The amount of a retainer required and the reason an expert is necessary.
 4. Whether the parties agree to a specific appraiser, evaluator, or accountant.
- G. Provisional Child Support Orders. There is hereby created a rebuttable presumption that provisional child support orders shall be made retroactive to the first Friday following the date of filing of a written request for a provisional child support order. Such presumption may be rebutted upon a showing that such retroactivity is inappropriate under the facts of a particular case.

H. Exchange of Necessary Documentation. Before the scheduled provisional hearing, the parties as promptly as possible shall exchange documentation of all year-to-date income (usually satisfied by the party's three most recent paystubs), whether there are subsequently born children, documentation of an order or duty of support for prior born children, documentation of maintenance paid, documentation of work-related child care expenses, documentation of the weekly cost of health insurance for the minor children, and a proposed child support obligation worksheet.

LR89-FL00-6 ORDERS EXCLUDING A SPOUSE FROM THE RESIDENCE

A. Eviction without Notice. A Restraining Order without notice pursuant to Ind. Trial Rule 65 which would evict a spouse from the marital residence may be issued only upon the following bases:

1. Strict compliance with Ind. Trial Rule 65;
2. Alleged specific facts indicating more than a generalized fear of an adverse action;
and,
3. Credible evidence of actual or threatened physical abuse sufficient to find a risk of imminent danger.

In addition to the above, the moving party is physically available to testify unless there is a showing of exceptional circumstances precluding his or her availability and the moving party certifies to the Court the reasons supporting the claim why notice cannot be given.

The Court may also consider any other relevant social or economic factors including whether either party has a reasonable alternative residence pending hearing on the provisional motion(s). In those circumstances where the Court allows a party to be heard ex parte on the record and finds an emergency exists justifying issuance of an eviction order, the cause shall heard within ten days with notice to all parties. Such an order shall, by its own terms, terminate effective the date and time of the hearing, unless extended by the Court after hearing evidence thereon. Furthermore, such an order shall terminate at the expiration of ten days from the date of said order if no hearing is held prior thereto.

B. Order. If an Order granting exclusive possession of the marital residence to one spouse is entered by the Court without hearing under this Rule, such Order shall contain the following language: "The _____ is hereby restrained from entering marital residence located at _____ and the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, Richmond Police Department, or other appropriate law enforcement agency shall use all reasonable force, including arrest, to remove a party from the premises upon presentation of such an Order."

C. Extraordinary Remedy. Any orders issued ex parte hereunder shall be considered an extraordinary remedy and should be considered only in emergency circumstances.

- A. Requirement. In Family Cases which may reasonably involve issues of child support, spousal maintenance, and/or allocation of assets and debts, each party shall prepare and exchange, respectively, within forty-five days of the initial filing of the action or within thirty days of the filing of any post-decree matters, a Financial Declaration Form (see Appendix B). These time limits may be extended or shortened by court order for good cause shown. With respect to post-decree modification actions and non-dissolution of marriage cases, only Page 1 and the signature verification need be completed.
- B. Exceptions. The Financial Declaration Form need not be exchanged if:
1. the parties agree in writing to waive exchange;
 2. the parties have executed a written agreement which settles all financial issues;
 3. the proceeding is one in which the service is by publication and there is no response;
or
 4. the Court otherwise waives such requirement.
- C. Admissibility. Subject to specific evidentiary challenges, the Financial Declaration Form shall be admissible into evidence.
- D. Supporting Documents. For the purpose of providing a full and complete verification of assets, liabilities and values, each party shall attach to the Financial Declaration Form all information reasonably required and reasonably available. This shall include recent bills, wage and tax records, bank records, pension and retirement account information, and mortgage account records. The term “reasonably available” means that material which may be obtained by letter accompanied with an authorization, but such term does not mean material that must be subpoenaed or is in the possession of the other party. Appraisals of real estate or personal property, or pension valuations are not required. However, the Court may direct that an appraisal or valuation be obtained, just as it may designate the appraiser or valuator. The Court may require either party to supplement the Financial Declaration Form with appraisals, bank records, and other evidence to support the values set forth in the Form.
- E. Financial Declaration – Mandatory Discovery. The exchange of Financial Declaration Forms constitutes mandatory discovery. However, Indiana Trial Rule 37 sanctions do not automatically apply. In the event that a party does not timely submit his or her fully completed Financial Declaration Form and reasonable efforts have been made to informally resolve any such dispute, the party seeking compliance may file a Motion to Compel and [if desired] for Sanctions. If such Motion is granted, the Order shall set a deadline for compliance and schedule a hearing on potential sanctions. At said hearing, the Court may take into consideration the noncompliant party’s compliance with the Order to Compel in determining whether to award sanctions to the moving party. Additionally, pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 26(E)(2) and (3), the Financial Declaration Form shall be supplemented if information changes or is added or if additional material becomes available.

Any additional discovery such as Requests For Production, Interrogatories, or Depositions of the parties to the action shall not commence until the Financial Declaration Forms has been exchanged; provided, however, that if a party's noncompliance has resulted in the filing of a Motion to Compel, the moving party may move forward with additional discovery reasonably necessary to obtain the information sought. Any further discovery shall not seek to obtain information already obtained by the Financial Declaration Form.

- F. Privacy – Sealing Of Financial Declaration Form. Whenever the interest of privacy so requires, the Court may, upon proper Motion, direct that the Financial Declaration Form(s) be sealed until further order of the court. However, such request(s) shall not be made as a matter of course. When ordered sealed, the Court Reporter shall place the Financial Declaration Form(s) in a flat manner in an envelope of sufficient size, seal the envelope, and affix a copy of the Order directing that the Financial Declaration Form(s) be placed under seal. Financial Declaration Form(s) may be withdrawn at the conclusion of the case on such terms as the Court may allow.
- G. Clerk To Provide Notice Upon Filing. Upon the pro se filing of any Family Case referred to in LR89-FL00-7(A), the Clerk shall provide to the moving party upon filing a Notice of the requirement of this Rule. Such Notice shall be in a form substantially as follows: “You are advised that each party is required to provide to the other party or his or her legal counsel, if applicable, a fully completed Financial Declaration Form with all required attachments within forty-five days of the filing of such petition/motion or, in the case of a post-decree petition/motion, within thirty days.

You are further advised that copies of the Financial Declaration form may be obtained at the Clerk's Office, located on the Second Floor of the Wayne County Courthouse, 301 East Main Street, Richmond, Indiana. Failure to timely provide a fully completed Financial Declaration Form with all required attachments may result in sanctions being entered against the party failing to comply with this Rule.”

LR89-FL00-8 PARENTING CLASS

- A. Attendance at Class. Before final hearing is scheduled on any Family Case other than guardianship and adoption cases, each party must attend not less than one parenting class session as designated by the Wayne County Circuit and Superior Courts. The Wayne County Clerk of Courts shall distribute an informational flyer, provided to it by the judges, which discloses the name and location of the class, as well as the telephone number to call to schedule the class. Said flyer shall also provide for the cost and any prerequisite rules made by the moderator of such class.
- B. Certificate. The moderator of each session will provide each attendee with a certificate of attendance, unless waived, which must be filed with the Court's Clerk prior to the Court's granting the Petition or Motion in such Family Case (except guardianship or adoption).
- C. Payment. Each party is responsible for payment of the cost of that party's participation unless the court waives the fee in rare circumstances.

- D. Waiver. In those limited circumstances where it is apparent that a party's compliance with this rule cannot be compelled or is otherwise unnecessary, upon motion, the Court may grant a waiver of its application.
- E. Motion to Compel Attendance. If one party has failed to attend the class as required, the complying party may file a Motion to Compel Attendance with the Court requesting that the Court enter an Order requiring the opposing party to attend the class by a date certain or be subject to contempt of Court. Appropriate sanctions may include, but shall not be limited to, attorney's fees, incarceration, or a finding that parenting time by said party might endanger the child(ren)'s physical health or significantly impair the child(ren)'s emotional development justifying a restriction on parenting time in accordance with Ind. Code 31-17-4-1 or Ind. Code 31-14-14-1.
- F. Additional Attendance at Class May Be Required. The Court may order additional attendance at the parenting class at any time as it in its sole discretion deems appropriate.

LR89-FL00-9

MEDIATION

No final hearing in a Family Case which is anticipated to take more than thirty (30) minutes of court time shall be set without the parties having first submitted a Notice to the Court that they have engaged in mediation, either formal or informal, within the last six months regarding the matters to be set for hearing. "Formal mediation" is such mediation as contemplated by the Rules of Alternative Dispute Resolution.

"Informal mediation" is intended to include any face-to-face meeting between the parties, whether such meeting includes attorneys only or the involvement of the parties who may or may not be separated, depending on the circumstances. In the event the parties cannot agree as to a location for informal mediation, such informal mediation shall be conducted in Wayne County, Indiana. The Court shall have the discretion to order parties to formal mediation even if they have certified to the Court that informal mediation was unsuccessful.

LR89-FL00-10

PARENTING TIME ORDERS

The phrase "reasonable parenting time," if not specifically defined in the Court's order, is defined as the parenting time schedule outlined in the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines. Parenting time orders may be informally adjusted by agreement of the parties without Court order to accommodate the needs of the family; however, intended long-term formal modifications should, to protect all parties, be reduced to writing and submitted to the Court by Petition or Stipulation and approved by the Court to become binding.

LR89-FL00-11 CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME: REFERRALS FOR INVESTIGATION AND REPORT; GUARDIANS AD LITEM

A. Motion. On motion of either party with the approval of the Court, or on the Court's own motion, contested matters involving child custody and/or parenting time may be referred to appropriate sources for investigation and report to the Court including Custodial Evaluators and Guardians Ad Litem.

B. Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Ind. Code § 31-17-2-12, all custodial evaluator reports or guardian ad litem reports which are court-ordered regarding custody and/or parenting time shall be admissible into evidence on the motion of either party without the evaluator needing to be present at the hearing. No part of this Rule is intended to supplant the right of either party to compel the attendance of the evaluator or other witnesses as set out in Ind. Trial Rule 45.

C. Physical and Mental Examination. In all contested Family Cases involving child custody or visitation, the provision of Ind. Trial Rule 35 providing for the physical or mental examinations by a physician shall be extended to include examination and evaluations by a psychologist, therapist or other qualified evaluator upon order of the Court.

D. Parenting Coordinators. At the discretion of the Court and subject to availability, the Court may appoint parenting coordinators when appropriate pursuant to Section V of the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines.

E. Guardians Ad Litem. At the discretion of the Court and subject to availability, the Court may appoint guardians ad litem to protect the best interests of the child(ren). The appointed guardian ad litem shall have the authority to interview and observe the child(ren), parents, other family members, significant others, and other persons that may have information relevant to the best interests of the child. The appointed guardian ad litem shall also have the authority to interview law enforcement, physicians, nurses, medical support staff, therapists, counselors, teachers, babysitters, daycare persons, and other expert and skilled witnesses with information regarding the child(ren), parents, guardians, custodians, or others in the life of the child(ren). The guardian ad litem at his/her discretion may conduct a home study or other review of the child's home and/or surroundings and do all other things that he/she deems appropriate and useful in making an investigation and considering the time restrictions involved in the matter. The guardian ad litem may also prepare and file interim or final reports as to his/her findings and recommendations as he/she deems appropriate or as ordered by the court. The Court in its discretion may appoint an attorney for the guardian ad litem in the case upon its own motion or at the request of the guardian ad litem.

F. Report of the Guardian Ad Litem Confidential. Any report of the guardian ad litem, whether interim or final, is confidential and shall not be shown or its contents divulged, directly or indirectly, including by way of Facebook, email, text message, Twitter, Snapchat, other social media, blogs, podcast, radio, television, or by any other application or method, to the child, family member, or any other person. This Rule shall not in any manner prohibit the party's attorney from discussing the report with the party in detail. The report shall be designated as "Confidential."

G. Cooperation with Guardians Ad Litem. The parties at all times shall cooperate with the Guardian Ad Litem in his/her investigation and shall not in any manner hinder or attempt to hinder the investigation of the guardian ad litem appointed in a case. Failure to meet with the guardian ad litem as requested or to cooperate with the guardian ad litem may result in a negative report and/or the reporting of such failure to cooperate to the court. An attorney representing a party in a case in which a guardian ad litem has been appointed shall at all times encourage the utmost cooperation with the guardian ad litem.

H. Fees. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the parties shall equally share the cost of any such referral ordered herein. Factors the Court may consider to deviate from an equal split of said fees include but are not limited to income disparity equal to or greater than 65%-35%, whether the referral provided the Court with information beneficial to the family as a whole, and whether the referral provided information confirming the moving party's position. The Court Order appointing a Parenting Coordinator may at the discretion of the Court provide that the Parenting Coordinator may re-allocate the split of costs and fees between the parties if, in the discretion of the Parenting Coordinator, one of the parties is requiring more time and resources of the Parenting Coordinator and/or is being unreasonable. The parenting Coordinator shall advise the parties in advance of his/her intent to re-allocate the split of costs and fees. If either party disagrees with and objects to such re-allocation, the objecting party may within fifteen (15) days of the announced re-allocation seek a review by filing a written objection with the court.

I. Termination of Guardian Ad Litem Appointment. Upon the entry of final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, Legal Separation, Paternity, or Order of permanent modification of any custody, parenting time, and/or child support Order, the appointment of the Guardian Ad Litem shall be deemed terminated unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

LR89-FL00-12 REQUIREMENTS BEFORE APPOINTMENT OF CUSTODIAL EVALUATOR AND/OR PARENTING COORDINATOR (NOT APPLICABLE FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN AD LITEM)

All requests for the appointment of a custodial evaluator and/or a parenting coordinator must be (1) in writing, (2) certify that both parties and their counsel, if any, have engaged in at least one good faith attempt to resolve the issues through the use of a settlement conference or mediation and also certify the following:

- A. both parties have completed any mandatory website work required by LR89-FL00-4(D);
- B. both parents have completed any mandatory co-parenting class required by LR89-FL00-8;
- C. both parties have exchanged their merged Worksheets of any mandatory website work as required by LR89-FL00-4(D);
- D. both parties and their attorneys, if any, have engaged in at least one good faith attempt to resolve the issues through the use of a settlement conference or consultation; and
- E. a Certificate of Cooperation pursuant to LR89-FL00-4(D) and in the form of Appendix C to these Rules is included with the request for the appointment of a custodial evaluator or parenting coordinator.

Commentary: Custody evaluations and, to a lesser degree, appointments of parenting coordinators, are sometimes divisive and produce less, rather than more, cooperation between parents. As a result, custody evaluations and appointments of parenting coordinators will be reserved for cases where one or both parents lack the capacity to safely resolve the issues they face. No custody evaluation or appointment of a parenting coordinator will be ordered or conducted unless reasonable cooperative measures have been attempted, such as co-parenting education, counseling, and mediation.

LR89-FL00-13 CONTACT WITH CUSTODIAL EVALUATORS, PARENTING
COORDINATORS, AND GUARDIANS AD LITEM/COURT
APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATES

A. Contact with Custodial Evaluators. In the event a custodial evaluation is ordered by the Court, the Court shall direct the parties to contact the custodial evaluator to arrange for an appointment with the custodial evaluator. Other than making contact with the office of the custodial evaluator to arrange for the client's appointment with the custodial evaluator, counsel shall not initiate contact or otherwise communicate with the custodial evaluator until the custodial evaluator's report has been issued. Prohibited contact or communication shall include the sending of school records, medical records, affidavits, reports, or any other type of written record by the attorney to the custodial evaluator. Information which may be requested by the custodial evaluator shall be delivered or otherwise presented to the evaluator by the party and not counsel.

In the event the custodial evaluator should contact counsel before the evaluator's report has been issued, such fact should be promptly conveyed to opposing counsel indicating the specific dialogue between counsel and the custodial evaluator. Following the issuance of the evaluator's report, the evaluator shall be deemed a witness and counsel shall be permitted ex parte communication with the evaluator at counsel's/client's expense.

Whenever a Court orders a custodial evaluation the Court shall attach a copy of this Rule to its order and shall have the Clerk distribute such order and attached Rule to the designated custodial evaluator.

B. Contact with Parenting Coordinators, Guardians Ad Litem/Court Appointed Special Advocates. In the event a Parenting Coordinator, Guardian Ad Litem/Court Appointed Special Advocate is appointed by the Court, the parties' attorneys shall not communicate with said Parenting Coordinator, Guardian Ad Litem/Court Appointed Special Advocate unless said communication includes all other parties to the cause of action. In the event such inclusion is not feasible, the fact that there was communication and the nature thereof shall be disclosed to all other parties within seven days of such communication.

C. No Contact with Children. Attorneys shall not have contact with the child(ren) involved in a Family Case, whether or not a custodial evaluator, parenting coordinator, or guardian ad litem has been appointed, without first having an order of the court authorizing such contact.

A. Worksheet Required. In all Family Cases involving child support, each party shall file with any settlement, or submit to the Court at any hearing or trial, an Indiana Child Support Obligation Worksheet(s) – one or more depending upon the facts. In any request for provisional order that contemplates any order for child support, a Child Support Obligation Worksheet - with as much supporting documentation as can reasonably be obtained at the time such as a recent pay stub and/or an explanation in the body of the Motion as to how the figures were computed - shall be attached to either the Motion for Provisional Order or Affidavit in Support. A response Child Support Obligation Worksheet - with as much supporting documentation as can reasonably be obtained at the time such as a recent pay stub and/or an explanation in the body of the Motion as to how the figures were computed - shall be provided to the other party or to opposing counsel, as the case may be, at least forty-eight hours prior to the provisional hearing, unless reasonable circumstances prevent doing so, and then such Child Support Obligation Worksheet shall be provided to the other party or to opposing counsel at the earliest opportunity. Child Support Obligation Worksheets shall be promptly supplemented if changes occur prior to trial. Child Support Obligation Worksheets intended to be introduced at trial or final hearing shall be exchanged by the parties or counsel, along with supporting documentation, at least seven days prior to trial.

B. Support Settlement Agreements. If an agreement concerning support provides any deviation from the Guidelines, the parties shall present to the Court a written explanation, with supporting documentation, justifying the deviation. The proposed Order shall specifically state that the Court is deviating from the Child Support Guidelines and set forth the reasons for such deviation.

C. Required Language. All Orders requiring the payment of child support shall include the following language:

“In the event that an Income Withholding Order is in place and has been activated, child support shall be paid to the State Central Unit and sent to: State Central Collection Unit, Post Office Box 6219, Indianapolis, Indiana, 46206-6219. Payments shall include the Cause Number of this case which is _____, the ISETS number which is _____, and the last four digits of the payer’s social security number. In the event that an Income Withholding Order is not in place or has not yet been activated and child support is being paid directly, payments shall be paid by Money Order to the State Central Collection Unit, Post Office Box 7130, Indianapolis, Indiana, 46207-7130. Payments shall include the cause number, ISETS number, and last four digits of the payer’s social security number, all referenced above. Payment to the Indiana State Central Collection Unit is the preferred method of child support payment and collection. However, the Clerk will accept walk-in payments of cash only. Payments shall include the cause number, ISETS number, and last four digits of the payer’s social security number, all referenced above. The payer shall retain a copy of the Clerk’s receipt. The payer shall also pay an Annual Support Fee as may be required by law so long as any child support order shall be in effect. The payee shall complete a Child Support Recipient Sheet with the Clerk’s Office in order that support may be properly received.

D. Income Withholding Order Required. In all proceedings involving child support, an Income Withholding Order shall be submitted with any Settlement Agreement or Final Decree as may be required by statute or the parties shall:

1. Submit a written agreement providing for an alternative child support arrangement; or,
2. Provide within the proposed Decree that “the Court determines that good cause exists not to require immediate income withholding” and stating the specific reasons therefore.

LR89-FL00-15 MODIFICATION OF POST-DECREE CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS

There is hereby created a rebuttable presumption that modification of post-decree child support orders shall be made retroactive to sixty days following the filing of the petition for modification.

In cases where a change of child custody is involved, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that modification of post-decree child support orders shall be made retroactive to the date of filing of the petition for modification or the date of the de facto change in custody, whichever is later.

LR89-FL00-16 PRETRIAL PROCEDURE

A. Setting of Pretrial Conference The Court may set a pretrial conference at any time. In addition, any party may file a request for a pretrial conference by filing a motion. Such request shall include a statement that mediation as required by these Rules has been completed or is scheduled and shall set forth the date and method of mediation, whether formal or informal and shall include a Certificate of Cooperation.

B. Pretrial Statement Required At least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the pretrial conference each party shall file a Pretrial Statement in the form and manner as required by LR89-TR16-010 of the Wayne County Rules of Civil Procedure. In addition, the Pretrial Statement shall include a Certificate of Cooperation.

C. Failure to Timely File Pretrial Statement In the event one or more parties fail to timely file a Pretrial Statement as required by this Rule, the Court may cancel the pretrial conference and/or hearing or trial, enter appropriate sanctions against the party or attorney failing to timely file the Pretrial Statement, or take such other action as the Court deems appropriate.

LR89-FL00-17 AGREED ENTRIES

An agreed entry shall not be approved by the Court without a Petition or Stipulation having first been filed. A Petition or Stipulation for Agreed Entry shall specifically set forth the basis and reasons for such Petition or Stipulation which meets the statutory requirements for the same.

LR89-FL00-18 EXHIBITS

In all family law cases, trial exhibits for the originally initiating party shall be marked as numbers and trial exhibits for the originally responding party shall be marked as letters.

LR89-FL00-19 FEES

A. Attorney Fees. Attorney fees may be awarded based on evidence presented by way of Affidavit (or oral testimony if the Court shall allow) at the final or other hearing. The Affidavit shall include an itemized statement of the requested fee. Affidavits shall be admissible into evidence by the Court. The following factors may be considered and should be included in any Affidavit submitted to the Court:

1. The number and the complexity of the issues (e.g. custody dispute, complex asset valuation).
2. The nature and extent of discovery and the parties' cooperation therewith (or lack thereof).
3. The time reasonably necessary for the preparation for or the conduct of contested preliminary matters or final hearings.
4. The extent to which either party encouraged or discouraged settlement without protracted litigation.
5. Other matters requiring substantial expenditure of attorney's time.
6. The attorney's hourly rate.
7. The amount counsel has received from all sources.
8. The ability of the opposing party to pay the requested fees and the disparity of income between the parties.

The Court shall have the discretion to award no, partial, or full attorney's fees.

B. Contempt Citation Attorney Fees. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that attorney fees will be awarded to the prevailing party in all matters involving a contempt citation.

LR89-FL00-20 TERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY

A. Representative Capacity Terminated. Upon the entry of final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, Legal Separation, Paternity, or Order of permanent modification of any custody, parenting time and/or child support Order, the representative capacity of all attorneys appearing on behalf of any party shall be deemed terminated upon:

1. An order of withdrawal granted pursuant to local rule;
2. The expiration of time within which an appeal of such Order may be preserved or perfected pursuant to the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure and/or the Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure; or
3. The conclusion of any appeal of such Order commenced pursuant to Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure and/or the Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure.

The failure of the Clerk of Wayne County to remove the appearance of such attorney from the Chronological Case Summary upon the occurrence of one of the above shall not affect the application of this Rule. However, notwithstanding this Rule, it is strongly recommended that the attorney file a Motion to Withdraw Appearance at the conclusion of the matter for which the attorney was hired and appeared.

B. Post-Decree Service. The service of any post-decree pleadings upon any party not represented by counsel pursuant to paragraph A above, despite the possible mistaken continued appearance of said attorney on the Chronological Case Summary, shall be made upon that person pursuant to Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

C. Courtesy Copy. Any copy served upon original counsel will be deemed to be a matter of professional courtesy only; however, such professional courtesy is encouraged, and if a courtesy copy of such petition is sent to a representative, whether terminated or not, such shall be shown on a certificate of service.

D. Termination of Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem. Upon the entry of final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, Legal Separation, Paternity, or Order of permanent modification of any custody, parenting time and/or child support Order, the appointment of the Guardian Ad Litem shall be deemed terminated. The Guardian Ad Litem shall be under no continuing obligation to continue work on the matter unless otherwise ordered by the Court or reappointed in later proceedings.

LR89-FL00-21 COLLABORATIVE LAW PROCESS

A. Defined. The collaborative law process is a voluntary dispute resolution process in which parties settle without resort to litigation. In the collaborative law process, the parties agree to:

1. voluntarily disclose all information which is relevant and material to the issues;
2. use good faith efforts to reach a mutually acceptable settlement without resorting to litigation;
3. engage attorneys committed to guiding the whole family through a resolution-focused mutually respectful process designed to protect the children's interests and engage in an honest yet civil exchange of information and expression of needs and expectations;
4. engage, if necessary, a neutral mental health professional to coach the parties in productive communication, a neutral financial professional to assist the parties in determining their respective financial needs, a neutral child specialist to guide the parties in planning for long-term solutions in co-parenting, and other professionals which may be identified.

Through this process, the parties focus on their highest priorities and interests, rather than bog down in a rights-based win-lose litigation strategy that can become costly and ineffective in preserving a long-term co-parenting relationship.

B. Initiation. The collaborative law process begins when the parties enter into a collaborative law participation agreement. A model collaborative law participation agreement is set forth in Appendix E. If they so elect, parties may proceed with the collaborative law process before or after any family law proceedings have been initiated. If such a proceeding has been initiated, the parties are to notify the Court of their intention to proceed under the collaborative law process by filing a Notice of Intent to Proceed with the Collaborative Law Process. Parties engaging in the collaborative process prior to the filing of any family law proceeding may file a Joint Petition for Dissolution and a Notice of Intent to Proceed with the Collaborative Law Process. Once the notice is filed, the proceedings before the Court will abate, and no hearings shall be scheduled until the collaborative process has terminated. The Court may request status updates from the parties, however, the status report may only state whether the process is ongoing or if it has been terminated.

C. Termination. A party may terminate a collaborative law process with or without cause. The collaborative law process is terminated upon:

1. Resolution of a collaborative matter as evidenced by a signed agreement;
2. Resolution of a part of the collaborative matter, evidenced by a signed agreement, in which the parties agree that the remaining parts of the collaborative matter will not be resolved in the collaborative law process;
3. Notice to the Court from any party that the process has been terminated; or
4. Any party initiating a pleading, a motion, an order to show cause, or a request for a conference with a tribunal in a pending proceeding related to a collaborative matter.

In the event the collaborative process ends without a full agreement having been reached, the parties are to file an appropriate notice with the Court. The matter will thereafter proceed as required under the Wayne County Local Rules of Family Law.

D. Representative Capacity Terminated. Upon notice of the termination of the collaborative process, the court must allow withdrawal of representation of both attorneys.

E. Agreements. If the parties agree that any full or partial, temporary or permanent agreements that may have been reached during the process survive the termination of the collaborative process, such agreement shall be filed with the Court with a proposed order for the Court to consider for ratification.

F. Application of Other Rules. Parties participating in the collaborative law process are required to comply with the Wayne County Local Rules of Family Law, however, they are specifically exempt from LR89-FL00-7 and LR89-FL00-9 while the collaborative process is ongoing.

Settlement negotiations within the collaborative process are governed by Rule 408 of the Indiana Rules of Evidence.

NOTICE

Wayne County has launched a new initiative for families that find themselves with cases in our courts. As judges responsible for these cases, we are committed to making them about ensuring safety, reducing conflict, building cooperation, and protecting children. These cases call for problem-solving in families, not more conflict. Parents win together or lose together. If the parents build safety and cooperation and, together, give their children a good place to live, then everyone wins. If the parents make a childhood a painful or dangerous place by remaining in conflict, then everyone loses.

If you have minor children, you are required to attend the class Parenting Together To Keep Kids First. Please refer to the yellow sheet for Instructions on completing the required web-site work and how to sign up for the class.

The Wayne County Local Rules require cooperation in family law cases. Except where it would be dangerous to do so, before any hearing, whether you have children or not, both parties are required to meet to discuss the matter and to try to reach an agreement. The Court will not hear the matter and your hearing will be cancelled unless there has been a prior, good-faith meeting to try to reach an agreement. The Wayne County Local Rules can be found at <http://www.in.gov/judiciary/2882.htm>.

If your case involves children and there is a request for child support, both parents are required to prepare an Indiana Child Support Obligation Worksheet (CSOW). In order to prepare the CSOW, please go to the child support calculator found at <https://mycourts.in.gov/csc/parents/>. Both parents shall bring the completed CSOW to any hearings. Failure to prepare the CSOW and to bring it with you to a child support hearing may result in the hearing being cancelled or other sanctions being entered.

With regard to parenting time, except in extraordinary circumstances, the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines are considered the minimum a noncustodial parent should be awarded. You can find the Guidelines at <http://www.in.gov/judiciary/rules/parenting/>.

We trust that you will join us in making Wayne County a leader in protecting children and helping them to become well-adjusted, productive adults.

EXHIBIT E COLLABORATIVE

PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT
{CLIENT NAME} and {CLIENT NAME}

PURPOSE

We have chosen the Collaborative Process to resolve our family differences. We acknowledge that the essence of the Collaborative Process is the shared belief that it is in our best interests to commit ourselves to a non-litigation process.

We have selected the interdisciplinary collaborative process for our family. Our interdisciplinary team (“team”) consists of our two attorneys, a mental health neutral and a financial neutral.

We adopt this conflict resolution process, which relies on cooperation, integrity and professionalism geared toward the future well-being of the restructured family. Our goal is to eliminate the negative economic, social and emotional consequences of litigation. We commit to the collaborative process to resolve our differences with the goal of achieving a resolution that is acceptable to us both.

COMMITMENTS

We commit to a collaborative problem-solving process which is based on:

1. Identification of our values, goals and interests;
2. Our empowerment to make decisions;
3. Full and complete disclosure of relevant information; and
3. The collaborative team’s assistance in identifying issues, analyzing relevant information, developing options, and understanding consequences.

COMMUNICATIONS

We agree to effectively and honestly communicate with each other. All written and verbal communications between us will be respectful and constructive. Settlement meetings will be focused on those issues necessary to the ultimate resolution of the matter.

To maintain an objective and positive dialogue, we agree to discuss settlement of issues with each other only during team meetings. Either of us may request termination of a settlement discussion at any time, and such a request shall be immediately honored. Settlement issues will not be discussed at unannounced times.

We shall maintain a high standard of integrity and shall not take advantage of each other or of known mistakes, errors of fact or law, miscalculations or other inconsistencies, but shall identify and correct them.

[OPTIONAL IF CHILDREN] We acknowledge that inappropriate communications can be harmful to our children. Communication with the children regarding disputed issues will occur only as agreed by us. Our goal is to reach an agreement that promotes the best interests of our children. While the matter is in the collaborative law process, any evaluations will be by agreement of the team. We agree that neither collaborative lawyer will interview our minor children.

ALLIED PROFESSIONALS, EXPERTS AND ADVISORS

If allied professionals, experts or advisors (hereinafter referred to as “consultants”) are needed, we will engage them individually (with notice to the team) or jointly as neutrals. We may engage consultants for purposes of valuation, cash flow analysis, tax issues, parenting issues, and any other issue that requires expert advice and/or recommendations. We will agree in advance how consultants’ fees will be paid. Unless the team and consultants agree otherwise in writing, the consultants engaged are disqualified from testifying as witnesses, expert or otherwise, and their writings are inadmissible in any judicial proceeding between us. This disqualification does not apply to individuals engaged by us to assist us in other matters independent of the collaborative law process, such as preparation of tax returns and estate planning. A collaborative lawyer may consult with other professionals as necessary to better understand the factual and legal issues.

Consultants may communicate with us, our lawyers, and other consultants engaged in the collaborative law process with notice and agreement of the parties.

FULL DISCLOSURE

We agree to a full and candid exchange of information so that we can make a proper analysis of the issues to be resolved. Any material change in information previously provided must be promptly updated. Additionally, we may be required to sign a sworn statement making full disclosure of our income, expenses, assets and debts.

CONFIDENTIALITY

We agree to maintain the confidentiality of any oral or written communications by the team in the collaborative law process. All communications, whether oral or written, and the conduct of any team member or consultant in the collaborative process constitute confidential settlement negotiations and are, therefore, inadmissible. This paragraph does not apply to reports of abuse or neglect required by law, evidence of fraud, formal discovery, sworn documents prepared in this matter or a fully-executed collaborative settlement agreement.

We can disclose all information to a lawyer hired to render a second opinion in the collaborative law process or to a successor collaborative lawyer.

This provision does not prohibit disclosure by a collaborative lawyer or allied professional of redacted case information for educational purposes without disclosing the identities of the parties, nor does it prohibit participation by a party in educational forums or media interviews to discuss the collaborative law process.

AGREEMENTS

We understand that this Participation Agreement shall remain enforceable as a contract between us. If the Collaborative Participation Agreement is violated, the collaborative lawyers may withdraw as lawyers of record and, if required, shall consent to the substitution of litigation lawyers. We may agree to the entry of temporary orders as in other family law matters. Upon request of either of us, Exhibit “A” attached hereto shall be filed with the court as mutual temporary injunctions. Further, whether entered as temporary injunctions or not, we agree to abide by the terms of Exhibit “A” until it is modified by court order or written agreement.

Any written agreement, whether partial or final, which is signed by us and our respective collaborative lawyers, may be filed with the court as a collaborative settlement agreement. Such an agreement is retroactive to the date of the written agreement and may be made the basis of a court order. The collaborative lawyers shall cooperate in preparing the documents necessary to effectuate our agreement. Either or both collaborative lawyers, and other team members shall be permitted to appear in court to have the agreed Final Judgment(s) entered.

REPRESENTATION AS TO PROPERTY

It is understood and agreed that the final documents reflecting our financial settlement may include the following, or similar, provisions:

Representations and Disclosures. The parties represent to each other that the property listed represents all of the property in which either of them may have an interest.

Separate Property. Any property which is not listed or described and which is later determined to be the separate property of a party shall be and remain the separate property of that party.

Property and Liabilities Mistakenly Omitted. Any mistakenly omitted property which is not listed or described and is later determined to be the marital property of the parties, shall be equally divided by the parties. Any mistakenly omitted liabilities which are later determined to have been the joint liabilities of the parties shall be equally divided by the parties.

Property and Liabilities Intentionally Omitted. Any marital assets later determined to have been intentionally and fraudulently undisclosed by a party are set aside 100% to the other party. Any liabilities determined to have been intentionally and fraudulently undisclosed by a party are allocated 100% to the party who incurred the debt.

If an error or omission is discovered, the parties agree to promptly return to the collaborative process to resolve the issue in dispute.

LEGAL PROCESS

Suspension of Court Intervention. We agree that court intervention shall be suspended while we are in the collaborative law process. Seeking court intervention for a judicially-imposed decision regarding a disputed issue automatically terminates the collaborative law process.

Subsequent Court Proceedings. The representation of the lawyers and the collaborative neutrals is limited to the collaborative law process. Should the process be terminated, neither lawyer nor the collaborative neutrals can participate in the pending matter in any manner nor can the lawyers or collaborative neutrals subsequently represent either party in a proceeding against the other.

During the collaborative law process, no motion or document will be prepared or filed which would initiate court intervention, other than a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. If necessary, service of process will be accepted by the respective lawyers. The Team may elect to file a Notice of Intent to Proceed with the Collaborative Law Process if a case has been filed. No hearing shall be set thereafter, other than to enter agreed orders and judgments.

Termination by Party. If either of us decide to terminate the collaborative law process, we shall notify our respective lawyer in writing. The lawyer shall then give prompt written notice to the Team and if a Petition is filed, to the court, by filing a Notice of Termination of Collaborative Process. Upon notice of termination of the process to the other lawyer, there will be a 30-day waiting period (unless there is an emergency) before any court hearing to permit each of us to engage another lawyer and make an orderly transition. All written agreements shall remain effective until modified by agreement or court order.

If the collaborative law process is terminated by seeking court intervention for a judicially- imposed decision, we understand that both lawyers shall withdraw from the representation as well as the neutrals. Neither collaborative lawyer (including any lawyer associated in the practice of law with the collaborative lawyer) nor any neutral may serve in the litigation in this case or in any other matters between the parties thereafter. Each lawyer will cooperate in transferring the file to a new lawyer. Upon termination, the collaborative neutrals' work product will not be shared with any third party without the written consent of both parties.

Termination by Lawyer. If either of us refuse to disclose information, including the existence of documents, which in the lawyer's judgment must be provided to the team or answers dishonestly any inquiry made in the collaborative law process, or proposes to take any action that would compromise the integrity of the process, and persists after counseling by the lawyer, the collaborative law process must be terminated. Under any of these circumstances, we acknowledge that the lawyer has a duty to terminate the collaborative law process by written notice to all participants and the court, if filed.

Substitution of Collaborative Professional. In the event one of us decides to change a collaborative professional, that person, once retained, will execute this Collaborative Participation Agreement within 7 days of being retained, so as to not delay the orderly progression of the case.

Withdrawal of Lawyer. If there is no termination of the process, either collaborative lawyer may withdraw unilaterally from representation by giving ten (10) days written notice to his or her client and the other members of the collaborative team, unless substituted by a successor lawyer in which case no such notice is required. Notice of withdrawal of a collaborative lawyer does not terminate the collaborative law process; however, for the process to continue, a new collaborative lawyer must be engaged who will agree in writing to be bound by this Participation Agreement.

MEDIATION

Prior to termination of the collaborative law process, or to further facilitate the collaborative law process, we agree to give serious consideration to participation in mediation in good faith with a mediator who has received training in the collaborative process.

PROFESSIONAL FEES AND EXPENSES

We agree to make funds available, from our marital or separate estates, as agreed and as needed, to pay for the fees and costs of the two attorneys, the financial neutral and the mental health neutral. We agree that all professional fees are to be paid in full prior to entry of a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage.

UNDERSTANDINGS

We understand that each collaborative lawyer is independent from the other and each represents and advocates for his or her client only. No lawyer-client relationship is created by virtue of this Participation Agreement or the collaborative law process.

We acknowledge the following: There is no guarantee that the collaborative law process will be successful in resolving our issues. The process cannot eliminate concerns about the differences that have led to the current conflict. We are expected to assert our own interests and our respective collaborative lawyers will help each of us to do so. The process, even with full and transparent disclosure, can involve intense good-faith negotiation, but best efforts will be used to create options that meet both of our interests. Compromise may be needed to reach a settlement of all issues. Although the likely outcome of a litigated result may be discussed, the threat of litigation will not be used.

We understand that by agreeing to this process, we are giving up certain rights, including the right to conduct formal discovery (other than sworn statements), the right to participate in adversarial court hearings and other procedures provided by the adversarial legal system, unless the process is terminated.

The terms of this agreement may be modified only by written agreement signed by the team. However, the prohibition against either lawyer, and any lawyer associated with that lawyer, representing their client in contested matters against the other may not be modified.

We hereby pledge to comply with and to promote the spirit and letter of this agreement. We acknowledge that we have read this agreement, understand its terms and conditions, and agree to abide by them.

WAYNE COUNTY RULES OF PROBATE

Adopted by Wayne County Bar Association, Originally Effective October 30, 1997, Including All Amendments Approved Effective July 1, 2020.

LR89-PR-00-001 Notice

1.1 Notices required at the outset of a probate estate shall be prepared by the petitioner or movant and shall be filed with the Clerk in accordance with Indiana Rule of Trial Procedure 86(D). Service of the notices shall be in accordance with Indiana Rule of Trial Procedure 85(G).

1.2 Copies of petitions shall be sent with all notices where the hearing involved arises from the matters contained in the petition.

1.3 On the filing with the Clerk by the personal representative or guardian of any petition, application, complaint, partial report, final report, or any report that requires fixing of date and place of hearing of same by the Court and giving notice thereof to any or all interested persons as required by law or order of the Court, the Clerk shall forthwith fix the date and place of hearing, by endorsement on the same, and shall return to such personal representative or guardian the required notice, which shall be then served by such personal representative or guardian in accordance with Indiana Rule of Trial Procedure 85(G). The Clerk shall then also make and record on the proper order book on the date of the filing of such petition or report, an order by the Court fixing the date and place of hearing of such petition or report, the same as fixed thereon by the Clerk.

1.4 The Wayne County Scheduling Clerk will accept calendaring responsibilities concerning notification to all personal representatives and guardians of the due date of any statutorily required inventory or accounting. A copy of such notice of due date will be mailed to the attorney of record for the personal representative or guardian.

LR89-PR-00-002 Filing of Pleadings

2.1 Routine pleadings, such as Inventories and Final Reports shall be filed with the Clerk for transmittal to the Court.

Commentary

The inheritance tax is repealed. The word "shall" seems more appropriate than "may."

2.2 All attorneys are required to prepare orders for all proceedings except when expressly directed otherwise by the Court.

2.3 Every pleading, including Inventories, Petitions, and Accountings, filed in an Estate or Guardianship, shall be signed and verified by the fiduciary and signed by the attorney for the fiduciary. Pleadings of a procedural nature only may be signed by only the attorney.

2.4 All pleadings filed shall contain the attorney's name, address, telephone number, and attorney's Registration Number.

2.5 The initial petition to open an Estate or Guardianship shall contain the name and address of the fiduciary.

2.6 Every person seeking appointment of personal representative or guardian of the estate shall file with the petition a signed acknowledgment of Court's instructions to the fiduciary. The instructions shall be in the form of the instructions as set out in Appendix B.

Commentary

The requirement of filing of instructions is designed to ensure that fiduciaries are fully aware of their responsibilities and duties.

LR89--PR00-003 Bond

3.1 The filing of any bond for a Personal Representative shall be governed by Indiana Code 29-1-11-1 (or any subsequent recodification thereof).

3.2 The filing of any bond for a guardian shall be governed by Indiana Code 29-1-7-1 and 29-1-7-2 (or any subsequent recodification thereof).

3.3 In the event that a bond is requested or anticipated, the petition to open an estate or guardianship shall set forth the probable value of the personal property plus the estimated annual rents and profits to be derived from the property in the estate or guardianship.

3.4 The Court may, in making a determination of bond, consider whether the Personal Representative or Guardian has committed to the attorney for the estate that the attorney will control the administration of the bank account and/or other accounts of the estate in cooperation with the Personal Representative or Guardian (i.e.: the attorney is controlling the issuance of any disbursements from any account of the estate, including having physical possession of all checks or other methods of disbursement). If the Personal Representative has committed that the attorney will have such control, such fact should be included in the petition.

LR89-PR00-004 Inventory

4.1 An inventory shall be filed by the fiduciary in all estates and guardianships, except unsupervised estates, within sixty (60) days; Guardianships within ninety (90) days for permanent guardians; and, within thirty (30) days for temporary guardians. All times relate to the appointment of the fiduciary.

4.2 In the event a partial inventory is filed, all subsequent inventories must contain a recapitulation of prior inventories.

LR89-PR00-005 Sales of Real Estate

5.1 When a Petition to Sell Real Estate is filed in a supervised estate or guardianship, it shall be accompanied by a written appraisal prepared by a person qualified to appraise such property, setting forth the fair market value of said real estate, unless such an appraisal was previously filed with the Inventory.

5.2 All appraisals required by Rule 5.1 shall be made within one (1) year of the date of a Petition to Sell Real Estate.

5.3 In a supervised estate, whenever a Final Decree contains real estate located in any county other than Wayne County, the Decree or a Personal Representative's Deed shall be recorded with the Recorder of the county in which any such real estate is located.

LR89-PR00-006 Sale of Personal Property

6.1 In all supervised estates and guardianships, no Petition to Sell Personal Property at private sale shall be granted unless a written appraisal prepared by a person competent to appraise such property and setting forth the Fair Market Value thereof, is filed with the Court at the time of the filing of the Petition to Sell, unless such appraisal was filed with the Inventory. In the case of a motor vehicle, a valuation obtained from a nationally recognized vehicle valuation service, such as NADA or Kelly Blue Book, may, in the discretion of the Court, be substituted for a written appraisal.

6.2 All appraisals required by Rule 6.1 shall be made within one (1) year of the date of the Petition to Sell.

6.3 No written appraisal shall be required for the sale of assets which are traded in a market and the value of which is readily ascertainable. Such assets include, but are not limited to, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, commodities, and precious metals.

LR89-PR00-007 Claims

7.1 On or before three (3) months and fifteen (15) days after the date of the first published notice to creditors, the personal representative, or the personal representative's attorney, shall file a pleading with the Court showing the personal representative's determination of either allowing a claim or disallowing a claim, in whole or in part, as to those claims filed within three (3) months after the date of the first published notice to creditors. A copy of this pleading shall be served upon each creditor whose claim has been disallowed in full or in part. The Clerk shall give immediate written notice to a creditor if its claim has been disallowed in full or in part. Such pleading shall also be filed within thirty (30) days after the filing of any subsequent claim made by other creditors beyond the initial time period of three (3) months following the first published notice to creditors, with the same service of copy and notice. In the absence of a pleading from the personal representative during these time periods, the claim shall be deemed disallowed. Compliance with this rule shall be deemed compliance with I.C.29-1-14-10.

7.2 If the personal representative files a notice of disallowance of claim and request for pretrial conference, the Court shall set the claim for a pretrial conference. If the creditor appears for the pretrial conference, the Court shall set the claim for trial. If the creditor fails to appear for the pretrial conference, the disallowance of claim shall be affirmed by the Court. In lieu of appearing at the pretrial conference, the creditor may request the Court to schedule the matter for trial. Notwithstanding such request, the Court may require the parties to appear at a pretrial conference.

Commentary

Rule 7.2 is designed to clarify the procedure for handling disallowed claims and to provide for an efficient means of disposing of claims while ensuring due process for the creditor.

LR89-PR00-008 Accountings

8.1 Accountings for estates must comply with Indiana Code 29-1-16.

8.2 All guardianship accounts shall contain a certification of an officer of any financial institution in which guardianship assets are held, verifying the account balance.

8.3 All Social Security or Medicare benefits received on behalf of an incapacitated person shall be included and accounted for in the guardianship accountings unless Court approval has been previously granted to allow said funds to be paid directly to a residential or healthcare facility.

8.4 In all supervised estate and guardianship accountings, vouchers, canceled checks, bank statements, check images provided by the financial institution, or other evidence of expenditures acceptable to the Court for the expenditures claimed, shall be filed with the accounting.

8.5 In all supervised estate and guardianship accountings, a notation shall be placed by each expenditure indicating the reason for or nature of the expenditure.

EXAMPLE:

Bogata Drugs - Prescription drugs Dr. John Jones - Medical services.

Sam Smith - Repair roof of home at 162 Maple Street, Anytown, Indiana.

Tendercare Nursing Home - Nursing home care.

8.6 All accountings to the Court shall contain an itemized statement of the assets on hand.

8.7 Receipts, canceled checks, bank statements, check images provided by the financial institution, or other evidence acceptable to the Court for all final distributions shall be filed either in the final report, or a supplemental report, before discharge will be granted by the Court.

8.8 All accountings shall follow the prescribed statutory format. Informal, handwritten or transactional accountings will not be accepted.

8.9 All Court costs shall be paid and all claims satisfied and released before the hearing on the Final Account, and a Clerk's Certification thereof shall be filed with the Court before such Final Account shall be approved.

8.10 In those estates where no Indiana inheritance tax is due during a time period when Indiana inheritance tax was applicable, the Affidavit required to be filed with the local Assessor's Office shall also be filed under the estate's caption and cause number with the Clerk of the Court.

LR89-PR00-009 Fees of Attorney and Fiduciary

9.1 No fees for fiduciaries or attorneys shall be approved in any supervised estate or guardianship until the Court has approved a fee petition filed by the attorney for the estate.

9.2 No attorney or fiduciary fees will be determined and authorized for payment by the Court in any Unsupervised Administration of a decedent's estate.

9.3 Where contracts for legal services have been entered into prior or subsequent to the opening of an estate or guardianship, the Court reserves the right to approve or disapprove the fee contracts consistent with this Court's fee guidelines.

9.4 Rule 1.5 of the Rule of Professional Conduct has been adopted by the Supreme Court of Indiana to govern attorney fees. All fees charged by attorneys shall be reasonable. The rule further enumerates the factors to be considered, which are as follows:

- (1) the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of questions involved, and the skills requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- (2) the likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
- (3) the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
- (4) the amount involved and the results obtained;
- (5) the time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
- (6) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
- (7) the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services.

The guidelines set forth in Appendix A to these rules are not to be used as a substitution for the attorney's determination of what a reasonable fee would be in a given situation. Rather, the guidelines are established to assist attorneys and fiduciaries by outlining what the Court will deem to be reasonable based upon the factors contained in Rule of Professional Conduct 1.5.

The basic guideline amounts are based upon usual and ordinary services. The guidelines also will assist in calculations of fees generated by the provisions of additional services.

While attorney fees are generally associated with services rendered in conjunction with probate or administered assets, as shown in the guidelines set forth in Appendix A, it is recognized that on occasion it would be reasonable to allow attorney fees within an estate for services provided associated with non-probate matters, including, but not limited to, assets with direct beneficiaries, payable on death accounts, and/or trusts outside of probate. To the extent any portion of a requested fee in a supervised estate relates to these services, the basis for such request shall be set out within the Section of Appendix A entitled "Explanation of Additional Fees Claimed." In determining the reasonableness of any such request, the Court must take into account the identity of the probate beneficiaries who will be directly affected with any approved fee, compared with the beneficiaries associated with the non-probate assets or service.

9.5 Unjustified delays in carrying out duties by the fiduciary and/or attorney may result in a reduction of fees.

LR89-PR00-010 Wrongful Death

10.1 No personal representative pursuing a wrongful death claim shall enter into an agreement to settle the claim without obtaining an order from the probate court approving the terms of the settlement, authorizing the personal representative to execute the settlement agreement and approving distribution of the settlement proceeds, including payment of attorney fees incurred in pursuing the wrongful death claim.

10.2 When a judgment has been paid or a settlement agreement is to be entered into by the personal representative, a petition shall be filed showing the proposed distribution of wrongful death proceeds consistent with I.C.34-23-1-1 and 34-23-2-1, together with a proposed order of distribution requiring a final account as to the distribution of the wrongful death proceeds be filed within thirty (30) days.

Commentary

The claims procedure under Rules 7.1 and 7.2 is intended to apply to unsupervised estates as well as supervised estates.

LR89-PR00-011 Unsupervised Administration

11.1 Any petition for unsupervised administration of an estate must comply with Indiana Code 29-1-7.5.

11.2 A verified Closing Statement filed in unsupervised administrations must comply with Indiana Code § 29-1-7.5-4, and must contain statements that the Personal Representative has completed the items set forth therein.

11.3 No Orders as to attorney's fees, compliance regarding notice of administration to decedent's creditors, or other orders shall be entered by the Court in unsupervised estates except that the Court shall enter an order approving the verified closing statement as required by Indiana Code and any orders or scheduling of hearings regarding claims under Rules 7.1 and 7.2. Notwithstanding, unless the Court revokes unsupervised administration and converts the estate to supervised administration, the issuance of an order on any matter in an unsupervised estate does not revoke the personal representative's authority to continue to administer an estate according to unsupervised administration.

LR89-PR00-012 Guardianships

12.1 In all guardianship matters seeking to declare an adult incapacitated for any reason, the incapacitated person shall be present at the hearing, or sufficient evidence is presented to excuse the absence of the incapacitated person pursuant to Indiana Code 29-3-5.1.

12.2 In all guardianship matters seeking to declare an adult incapacitated for any reason, a physician's report by the doctor treating the alleged incapacitated person, or such evidence as the Court shall require, shall be presented to the Court at the time the petition is filed or on the hearing date.

12.3 In every petition for the appointment of a guardian of the person of a minor child or an incapacitated adult, the petition shall contain the information required by Indiana Code 29-3-5.

12.4 Nothing herein shall be deemed as amending, superseding or altering the Probate Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Veteran's Administration of the United States of America, and every fiduciary and attorney shall comply with same, if applicable.

12.5 In all estate and guardianship matters involving either a claim for wrongful death or personal injury, the civil case and the corresponding guardianship or probate proceedings will be filed in the same Court without regard to the usual computer filing system which governs the filing of all other actions.

LR89-PR00-013 Miscellaneous

13.1(a) In those matters for which the Court has authority to grant an extension of time, the Court shall automatically grant one forty-five (45) day extension upon the filing of a written petition on or before the otherwise applicable deadline.

13.2(b) Any additional extension of time may be granted only upon the filing of an additional petition setting forth such good cause. Procedure for past-due filings and reports:

- (A) First Notice: A notice will be mailed to the attorney when the matter becomes past due.
- (B) Second Notice: If there is no response within thirty (30) days of the mailing of the First Notice, a letter notice from the Court will be mailed requesting compliance within fifteen (15) days.
- (C) Court Order: If there is no response within fifteen (15) days of the mailing of the Second Notice, a Court Order to show cause will be issued. Both the attorney and fiduciary must appear at the date and time specified in the Court Order.

(Note: Rule 9.5 may be invoked in any of the above circumstances.)

13.3 In all probate matters, two (2) original orders shall be presented to the Clerk at the time of filing.

13.4 Given the potential complexity involved in administration, the Court shall require the probate estates be opened and administered with the assistance of legal counsel, and the Court may require the guardianship estates be opened and administered with the assistance of legal counsel.

If all interested parties sign a waiver and consent stating they have been advised of the fees for additional services exceeds the Court's guidelines and that the services as detailed are additional, the Court may, in its discretion, determine if a hearing is required. An acceptable form of waiver is attached.

II. Wrongful Death Administration

The Court recognizes that in most instances, a retainer or contingent fee agreement is an appropriate method by which legal services can be provided in wrongful death claims. Accordingly, fees shall be allowed under such agreements if, at the time of settlement of the claim, it is shown to the Court's satisfaction:

1. That the Personal Representative was, prior to entering into such agreement, fully informed as to all aspects of the arrangement.
2. That the agreement is fair and reasonable.
3. That the fee sought is fair and reasonable.

Fee-related matters shall be approved pursuant to and consistent with Rules 10.1 and 10.2.

III. Unsupervised Estates

The Court will not determine fees in an unsupervised administration.

IV. Guardianship Administration:

Fees for the administration of guardianships shall be based on an hourly rate to be approved by the Court for both the attorney and the guardian. The Court will consider the attorney's and guardian's expertise in approving the hourly rate.
